

May 13th 2009 – Provinciehuis at Leuven

PFP Forum Belgium

The knowledge and networking event for the Financial advisor

Personal financial planning, “back to basics”

Our 2nd annual Personal Financial Planning even “Back to Basics” will take place at Leuven on Wednesday May 13th 2009 at Leuven’s train station.

This event is a one-day event , with lot’s of workshops, seminars, different masterclasses and stands.

Especially, it is a networking-event for planners and other financial professionals (accountants, insurance brokers, fiscalists, experts, tax consultants, notaries, CEO’s, credit brokers, real-estate brokers and students).

The Federation of Personal Financial Planners www.fppf.be organises this event in cooperation with Ventura Nederland, who hosted already their 11th event on January 28 2009 in the Netherlands.

The program is very diversified:

- professional knowledge (advanced education, wills, divorces, company law and planning, estate planning and investments)
- best practices (How does an advisor deal with company management, communication, administration, technology, software, organisation)
- networking is an important part of the forum in order to have a good perception of the work of other advisors in other financial categories or new product developers.

Please feel so free to come to the event as sponsor, or exhibitor or as member of FPPF, or attendant.

We would like to hear from you ! See you soon. Bieke Godts and Nikki Wauters

Back to basics

- The PFP forum is the knowledge and meeting avenue for financial professionals focusing on Financial Planning and Advice,
- The PFP forum provides a platform for professionals to meet each other on a yearly basis.
- At the PFP forum , new trends and opportunities, both national and international , will be presented,
- At the same time, a combination of vision, professional and practical approaches as well as expanding personal contacts will be offered to the visitors.

For the Financial Professional who wants to be successful !

On Wednesday May 13th 2009, the 2nd PFP Forum will take place. This year , the 'Provinciehuis' (Provincial Building of Flemish Brabant) at Leuven has been selected as the location. It is an ideal place to combine conference, educational and exhibitions.

Nature and youth are important to us:

- ✦ Green line: PFP also thinks about our planet. The 'Provinciehuis' is situated near the train station in Leuven which should make for an easy travelling.
- ✦ Investment in the future: Students from the well known and respected University of Leuven as well as students from other universities are invited to participate at the PFP forum. There is even an afternoon of workshops and masterclasses offered exclusively on how to approach students in financial matters.

Vision, practical tips and new ideas

The PFP forum is unique in its setting. It combines elements of a conference, workshops and exhibitions. During the program, well known and successful professionals from Belgium and abroad will present their view on intern developments, provide their vision, and present new trends.

The workshop program focuses on practical training at the level of content and practical applications.

At the exhibition stands contacts can be made with financial partners, to gain new ideas.
